

Holiday English Country Dance

Sunday, January 21, 2018

1:30-4:30pm

Come join us for an afternoon of dancing, refreshments, and Jane Austen themed fun! To celebrate the (extended) festive season – and, belatedly, the 242nd anniversary of Austen’s birth – the Williamsburg Heritage Dancers and the Southeastern Virginia branch of the Jane Austen Society of North America are co-hosting this special event. The dancing will be accessible to newcomers, and all are welcome; games, food, and socializing will be available for those not dancing.

Space is limited, so pre-registration ($10 per guest) is strongly encouraged. The event will be held at 710 South Henry Street in Williamsburg (Newport House B&B); parking is available on Mimosa Drive.

Questions? Contact us at williamsburgheritagedancers@yahoo.com, check us out on Facebook, or visit williamsburgheritagedancers.org or jasnasevaregion.weebly.com

(Please note: The Williamsburg Heritage Dancers will not be holding a workshop in January 2018; come join us for this instead!)
